Leadership

Managers at every level will work to a Code of Conduct Our leadership framework will have an emphasis on patient safety We will have competent and compassionate leadership at every level We will recruit and develop our staff on the basis of competencies, values and behaviours Our organisation's culture will be focussed on patients We will develop our staff to We will deliver the Right Care for be competent leaders, managers and clinicians who our patients drive and deliver quality Every person in our organisation will know that they are accountable Our quality governance arrangements will assure the quality of care received by our patients