Stephanie	Heys	Consultant Midwife	Bank contract East Lancashire Hospital Trust (role described in detail within the submitted form, kept on the record in Corporate Office)	√	N/A	N/A	N/A	Financial Interest		COI – Conflicts of interest discussed with line manager. Potential COI included involvement with incidents that I had been part of when providing care or as part of my honorary shifts at the Women's / ELHT. It was also discussed that due to the nature of my role I may well be asked to review and provide SME input to cases that include both trusts (as I work NWAS wide) but do not include me personally as part of the incident. Aligned to my NMC code of conduct it was concluded that as SME in NWAS I would provide this level of input ONLY if I had not been directly involved in the clinical incident and could confirm that I had no direct COI with any staff members included from the acute trusts.
			Clinical contract with Liverpool Women's Hospital Trust. This is an honorary clinical appointment agreed between LWH and NWAS. (role described in detail within the submitted form, kept on the record in Corporate Office)	N/A	√	N/A	N/A	Non-Financial Professional interest	COI – Conflicts of interest discussed with line manager. Potential COI included involvement with incidents that I had been part of when providing care or as part of my honorary shifts at the Women's / ELHT. It was also discussed that due to the nature of my role I may well be asked to review and provide SME input to cases that include both trusts (as I work NWAS wide) but do not include me personally as part of the incident. Aligned to my NMC code of conduct it was concluded that as SME in NWAS I would provide this level of input ONLY if I had not been directly involved in the clinical incident and could confirm that I had no direct COI with any staff members included from the acute trusts. I would also ensure that any case presented at PSEC that include any of the two trusts I would declare my COI prior and to ensure impartiality of the case assessment amongst the SLT on the call. Should I feel there was a COI in the case of any compliant / enquiry / investigation then I would remove myself from involvement to ensure objectivity and integrity of that process, ensuring this was discussed fully with my line manager.
			MNSI Contracts – 2. Specialist advisor role (paid) to provide review of MNSI reports that include the ambulance service (cannot undertake reviews that included NWAS as COI on MNSI side) (role described in detail within the submitted form, kept on the record in Corporate Office)	√	N/A	N/A	N/A	Financial Interest	Conflicts of interest are managed by MNSI themselves in which I have duty to report a COI to them directly – for example if I was provided a case to review that was an NWAS identifiable case (although it is pre agreed I wouldn't be asked to do this – but in case there was a mistake in the system). Also is maybe I was asked to review a case in which cross boundary care was provided that included one of any of the 23 units covered by NWAS. I would be expected to declare a COI in such cases.
			MNSI Contracts – 1. To undertake a national report on maternal deaths that include the ambulance service (role described in detail within the submitted form, kept on the record in Corporate Office)	N/A	√	N/A	N/A	Non-Financial Professional interest	This is a non-paid role so there are no financial interest to declare.
